

National NHP DNA Bank Order Form

Agreement Terms

Biosafety: Recipient is aware that all biological materials distributed by the National NHP DNA Bank may be potentially biohazardous, even when they are not specifically designated by a biohazard symbol. Recipient is cognizant of and will employ the appropriate biosafety standards including special practices, equipment and facilities.

Reporting: NIH measures the effectiveness of the National Primate Research Centers in part by tracking the publications arising from use of the resources. Recipient therefore agrees to acknowledge the source of these DNAs in publications arising from the use of the DNA samples. Suggested wording, "This study made use of DNAs obtained from the () National Primate Research Center, which is supported by NIH-NCRR grant P51 RR....." Recipient agrees to send reprints reporting use of these materials to the appropriate National Primate Research Center.

Non-profit status: Recipient agrees that the DNA samples will be used for teaching or not-for-profit purposes only.
